The Women's Orchestra of Auschwitz

Anne Sebba

Anne Sebba draws on meticulous research and exclusive first hand accounts to tell the astonishing story of the orchestra, its members and the response of other prisoners for the first time. What role could music play in a death camp? Anne Sebba traces questions of deep moral complexity with sensitivity and care. Come and hear her talk about this book.

Kind to Women

How the Abortion Act Changed our Lives

Wendy Savage

Jayne Kavanagh

Lisa Hallgarten

The passing of the 1967 Abortion Act was a pivotal moment for women's health and women's lives. The culmination of decades of campaigning, it finally ended the horror of deaths from self-induced and backstreet abortions.

We will be showing the documentary 'Kind to Women: how the 1967 Abortion Act changed our lives', followed by a Q & A with its directors Jayne Kavanagh (UCL Medical School) and Lisa Hallgarten and a panel including retired obstetrician and gynaecologist, Wendy Savage who features in the film.
